

Ste. Genevieve History Conference

September 16, 2023

SG County Community Center - 21390 Highway 32

8:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Mark W. Kelly, Esq. — Retired USDA NRCS Archaeologist and Western Author

Andrew Henry vs. Marie Villars, the First Legislature-Derived Divorce in the Territory of Louisiana

Dr. Brad D. Lookingbill - Distinguished Professor of History, Columbia College, Missouri

Missouri, the Heart of the Nation

Charlotte Young Slinkard - Researcher and Board Member Cape Girardeau Heritage Museum

Meet the Girardeaus: An Eighteenth Century French Colonial Family in the Mississippi River Valley

Dr. Robert Moore – Retired Historian from the National Park Service

Courage and Cannonballs: A New Look at the Military Aspects of the Battle of Fort San Carlos

Robert Mueller - Independent Researcher and Historian from Ste. Genevieve

Jacques Guibourd and his Family

Cost $50 per person - Includes Friday night reception, Saturday continental breakfast, lunch, and conference presentations.

Friday night Reception: 5 – 7 p.m. at the Jacques Guibourd House, 1 N. 4th Street

For reservations, please visit: www.historicstegen.org

For more info, call the Foundation at 573-883-9622 or email ffrsg67@gmail.com